Dorms regulate local calls

All residence hall students have recently been notified that beginning with winter quarter outgoing off-campus calls must be made from coin operated phones only.

Because of the terrific pressure on the telephone switchboard, it was the intent of the college to prohibit outgoing off-campus telephone calls from the residence halls effective with the beginning of the fall quarter and students were so informed. However, due to the unavailability of coin operated telephones, the regulation was not enforced during the fall quarter.

The equipment has now been installed. Incoming calls and on-campus calls will be the only calls allowed on the floor telephones.

This policy was formulated in an attempt to provide better switchboard service and it is hoped that it will be a temporary measure only. The college is exploring the possibility of installing a "Centrex" system in the future.

This system could provide individual phones in the residence halls which would by-pass the switchboard.

MANY DETAILS remain to be worked out, not the least being the financing of the system, but the college will do everything possible to install "Centrex" as soon as possible.

All are invited to the meeting.

S. E. Asia expert to lecture

A documentary color film lecture program on South Viet Nam will be held on Jan. 19, at Somsen Auditorium at 8 p.m.

This is the first of a series of three lectures this year sponsored by the Lectures and Concerts Committee. The next one will be a report on Red China by Lisa Hobbs on Feb. 18. The third one will be on the Dominican Republic by Robert Moran on April 26.

TICKETS WILL BE ISSUED at the ticket booth on second floor, Somsen, on a first-come, first-serve basis, on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday after one p.m. Bring temporary ID stub or photo ID card to get your ticket.

Recent first-hand on-the-scene observations will be presented in person by Kenneth S. Armstrong, an authority on Southeast Asia. A specialist in world affairs, Mr. Armstrong has concentrated on the people and countries of this critical region.

HE HAS SPENT over one year of the last four, living and traveling throughout South Viet Nam, Laos, Cambodia, and Thailand. His months in enigmatic South Viet Nam provided background for his informative lecture on the seemingly endless circle from coup-to-coup, ambush-to-ambush and crisis-to-crisis.

He went to every corner of South Viet Nam, including forays right up to the front lines. With his helicopter guarded by "gun-planes" he participated in "contour flying" — a fleet of deafening "choppers" roaring along above the death-filled rice paddies, hunting out the enemy. Before his eyes sharpshooters were blasted from palm trees, and disabled helicopters sank to earth. He has jeaped through Viet Nam villages, met with the Vietnamese people in cities and hamlets; interviewed their leaders; faced the crossbows of the primitive and unpredictable Montagnards.

Graduated from the University of Michigan in 1948, Mr. Armstrong pursued his career as journalist in depth for 13 years as Director of News and Public Affairs for WJW-TV of Cleveland, Ohio. From 1956 to 1960 his sphere of interest was Europe, concentrating on Russia and the satellite nations, with many months behind the Iron Curtain, journeys which were not without danger. He is now Editorial Director for KYW Radio and TV, Cleveland.

KENNETH ARMSTRONG'S present lectures are notable for providing information in depth on the people, problems, and countries of Southeast Asia, as related to each other, and to the rest of the world.

FIND YOUR EYEBROWS . . . Jackie Kruger and Judy Koepsell look on as Mr. James Spear, audio-visual director, explains photo ID procedure to Coreen Shefeland.

Students at Winona State College soon will have their activity cards and meal cards replaced by a photo ID card.

This is being done because of the problem in identifying the students with the increasing enrollment.

Photo-ID cards must be carried by students at all times and will be required for admission to all social activities and athletic events and for issuance of library materials. They also will be used as meal-ID cards for dormitory residents.

THE CARDS, plastic coated, will have different colors to identify dormitory residents from other students. If a student moves into the dormitory during the spring quarter, his card will be changed free of charge. There will be a place for punching on the cards. This will be used primarily for student elections and obtaining tickets for coming events.

Photo-ID cards will be distributed in Somsen 123 beginning Monday. They will be used for one year. In mid-May pictures will be taken for next year's cards.

AT THE BATTLEFRONT IN SOUTH VIET NAM . . . Kenneth Armstrong, in documenting his lecture, has been right up to the front lines. He presents an authoritative up-to-the-minute report on a colorful and vital area caught up in crisis.

Editorials

Credit given to 'informers'

There has been a lingering need on the Winona State campus that now has been filled. That need is for the students to be aware of what activities were taking place and when. This need has been filled in a number of ways.

Much of the credit must go to the student personnel office, at 106 Somsen, where Mr. LeRoy Stadler and Mrs. George Waterman prepare the master event calendar. This is prepared to prevent conflicts in the scheduling of school and club activities. They also check to make sure that everything the group needs for the meeting place has been arranged.

FROM THIS MASTER EVENTS calendar Phi Sigma Epsilon fraternity types and distributes the daily events calendar which is posted at various places around the campus. This provides an easy check for all students with regards to what is going on that day, where, and the time. Much credit here must go to John Ross, who usually does this service.

The Student Senate attempts to keep the students informed through Sue Frisch, the senate publicity senator, who with the help of Helen Gorman, prepares the colorful events calendar in the stair well between first and second floor Somsen. This provides a look at the major events coming up during the month.

It should be noted that these services save the clubs much time. For, instead of having to make many posters to post in all the busy points around campus; they simply have to go to the student personnel office and their club meeting time and other information is distributed for them.

THIS THEN IS to recognize those people who have worked to publicize the events that are going on, and to recognize those who have scheduled the events, so as to allow for the least conflict.

Fall quarter having ended

Many rumors have recently been floating around in regard to the drafting of college students for military service. Rumors such as the lowest quarter of the students being drafted, or the rumor about those below a specific grade point average being inducted are false.

Winona's local draft board has reaffirmed its present policy of deferring any full time college student who is making satisfactory progress toward his degree.

SATISFACTORY PROGRESS IS defined as gaining enough credits so as to complete the work for the degree you are working toward in the normal period of time for the completion of that degree. In other words, after one year of attending college, the student should be able to qualify as a sophomore. Note also that this is the local draft board's policy.

A student must keep in touch with his OWN local draft board, not the draft board in the community where he is attending school. There is a possibility that a different local board could have a different policy because of different man-power conditions under its jurisdiction.

THE LOCAL DRAFT BOARD has taken no students out of college. It has, however, inducted those who have dropped out of college.

IT'S REALLY ME!
By Dulcie Berkman

What to do, what to do.

What a to-do for a who are you.

"Activity card, please. Activity card, please.

That's how we know you've paid your fees."

Here it is, but very careful you'd better be,

For how do you know that it's really me?

"We'll soon take care of that, my dear;

Turn to the right and stop at Somsen 123."

Oh, come now, you've got to be kidding.

Soon my wallet's leather will be shedding

At the ten million ID's it holds,

Squeezed between the folds.

What's that you say? "Photo-ID's for Slater's too

Before your chow you may chew."

But I already have a pink card — number 31.

"It's only temporary until you receive the other one."

... I went to town yesterday despite the rain

To buy a mile-long chain.

I chained my ID's together so they wouldn't get lost

'Else I'd have to replace them at quite a high cost.

... Then they put new signs up and took the old away.

"We know who you are now; you can put your ID's away."

(Next quarter they'll probably start all over again.)

Reader disputes GPA system

TO THE EDITOR:

I would like to say a few words about the editorial written on the need for a new system of registration.

First, I do NOT think that the proposed idea of having the students register by grade point average is practical. The reasons are varied, but first I would like clarify that WSC DOES give esteem to those who maintain a higher academic standing. Does WSC not have a Kappa Delta Pi? Does WSC not put those who deserve it on the honor roll and publish it in the WINONAN and local newspapers? How about the sororities and fraternities and various other clubs who require a certain grade point average to become a member?

NEXT, I WOULD like to say that the number system does make a student wait — but would a student not have to wait through a different number system — namely the grade point average?

Also, I think we should consider the student who is having trouble in his classes — instead of pushing him in the back of the line to pull the remaining cards, give him a chance too! After all, perhaps he needs a better selection to bring up his average.

Perhaps a better system is needed but with larger college enrollment students are bound to wait — for even machines need time to do the work required of them.

Junior

Musicians needed for concert band

Dear Student Body,

Due to a combination of unfortunate circumstances, the Winona State Concert Band is badly in need of players in certain sections.

Our need of clarinet players is most urgent! In addition we could also use flutes, oboes, french horns and percussionists.

CERTAINLY a student body of 2300 students should be able to support a band of AT LEAST 50 players. We are attempting to provide a worthwhile program of new music with a strong eye on the future.

If you are interested and play one of the afore-mentioned instruments, please contact me at my office (Somsen-404, Tower), or leave a note in my mailbox. The band rehearses from 4:00 to 5:00 p.m. on Monday, Wednesday and Thursday.

Band Director

The world 'n things . . .

Increased spending seen

By John Ross

According to a recent New York survey, the 1966 consumer will be willing to spend some 452 billion dollars on consumer products and will concentrate his shopping efforts on quality and time-saving appliances. Optimism will be the keynote as the man on the street, with money jingling, invades the nation's department stores and shops.

"A sophisticated breed" is the new consumer who will be increasingly hep to fashions and taking a closer look at style, color, texture, and design before parting with the greenbacks. However, higher quality will rate a higher price and most individuals will pay the few extra dollars for a better product.

BASED ON holiday spending trends, the small appliance industry will flourish with the consumers' desire for cordless electric knives and can openers — these being big items in December. Comfort also rates high and will mean some 3 billion dollars spent on commercial and domestic air conditioning.

All is not 100 per cent optimistic for the consumer, however, as many contend he will be paying more for goods and services.

One of the nation's large department stores foresees retail prices creeping one per cent due to higher costs of labor, transportation, and material costs. At the same time, a large insurance company's annual forecast calls for an across the board price advancement of two-and-one-quarter per cent.

SOCIAL SECURITY prices have also gone up some five billion dollars, half of which will come from the workers' paycheck and the prospect of a tax rise to finance the war in Viet Nam still looms as the President's annual budget message goes to Congress this month.

The overall prospect for 1966 looks very good, however, and the gross national product is expected to reach 715 to 725 billion dollars as compared with $675 billion dollars in 1965.

College freshman graduates

Editor's Note:

This letter was written by Hap Cawood of Orientation 65 magazine and brought to the Winonan by Karen Mortensen.

Dear Dad,

Thanks for the money to begin winter quarter with. The only trouble is, I graduated yesterday, I know it's sort of a surprise, with me being an entering freshman several months ago. It was sort of a surprise to me, too.

I went to register yesterday and when they gave me my IBM cards they said I had enough credit hours to graduate and sent me to the Dean to get my diploma. The only thing I can think of is that when I stepped on my cards with my golf shoes last fall they got messed up. Anyway, I was given a 8-553-22 today, a diploma. I went to see the Dean and he said not to tell him his machines were wrong, with 56,000 students in them.

ANYWAY, I got a B.A. in philosophy. I don't know if I should stay in chemistry now or not. What do you think? I know you were quite interested in me working in the drug store, but I don't know what to do. I tried to re-enter as a second quarter freshman but they said they wouldn't take graduates. I tried to get into grad school but they needed references from five teachers in undergraduate school and I only had three.

Last night I started to call, but I didn't want to worry you about it, since I'm a graduate now and should be able to take care of myself. So today I went down to the Army place. They're looking for college graduates to be officers. I did OK on the tests, so I guess I'll go in there a while. I seem to fit pretty well.

Besides, next year I'd be eligible for the draft anyway, and business don't like to hire graduates who haven't been in the service yet. They said they'd teach me some philosophy. I brought a book with me.

I hope everything's fine at the drug store.

Sincerely,
Your Son

P.S. Tell mom not to send those cookies. Tell her that her child is "watching over the country."

Art major has
'excellent future'

The illustration on the cover of the new student directory, the portrait of Diane Martenson on Pasteur Hall for her homecoming candidacy, the program cover for the play, A Man For All Seasons, and the front page Christmas scene in the WINONAN, all show the work of WSC senior,
Russell Lebakken.

Lebakken, from Galesville, Wisconsin, is majoring in art. In the past he has joined with three other artists showing their work in Galesville. In the near future he is planning to have a one-man showing in the art gallery of Watkins Hall. He has previously had some of his work on exhibition in the gallery.

MRS. FLORETTA JUDSON, head of the art department, has this to say about Lebakken, "He has an excellent future in commercial art or teaching. He has maintained a high average in all of his art courses."

Lebakken started school here in 1960, studying art for two years. In 1963 he went to Florida to the Ringling School of Art for one semester where he studied Fashion Designing Illustration and Construction. He then received his certificate and returned to WSC. He will be graduated at the end of fall quarter, 1966.

He is a member of the Kappa
Pi Art Fraternity, the Wenonah Players, and the Young Republicans. He also works part-time at the Viking Mills where he is the art illustrator. Russ says, "I spend approximately twelve hours per week on my painting, but this isn't as much as I would like to spend."

Cagers win 1st NIC tilt; Drop two in tourney

Coach Robert Campbell's Cagers collected a victory in their first conference game as they edged Michigan Tech, 69-62 at Houghton, Michigan, last Saturday. The win brought the Warriors season record to 4-7.

But Winona State was not as fortunate during the Carroll College Holiday Tournament held in Waukesha, Wisconsin, December 28-29. The loss of freshman Charley Neal, because of scholastic difficulties, obviously was costly as the Warriors fell to Beloit College in the first round by a score of 90-66.

The following night a second loss was suffered at the hands of the host team, Carroll, 102-82, despite a 25 point effort by sophomore Mike Jeresek. Carleton College, the remaining contestant, was the tourney champion. Winona State completed its schedule against Wisconsin schools with only one victory in seven games.

Jeresek, the Cotter High graduate, also paced the triumph over Michigan Tech. He tallied 18 points and grabbed 14 key rebounds. Tim Anderson helped control the boards for the Warriors while Gary Peterson chipped in with 14 points. The Huskies trailed only 31-29 at the half and Winona State was forced to scramble all the way to the final buzzer to earn a share of the NIC Conference lead.

This Friday night will mark a rematch between the same teams as Michigan Tech invades Memorial Hall at 7:30. Then on Saturday night Winona State will host another conference opponent, Moorhead State, following a prep contest pairing Houston and Lewiston High schools.

Wrestlers win two quads

Winona State's wrestlers proved they were at least worthy of their fifth place rating in the NAIA by sweeping to victory in a quadrangular held in Memorial Hall last Saturday.

Coach Robert Gunner's team won the national placing with a previous first-place finish in another quadrangular held December 11 in Stevens Point, Wisconsin. The Warriors defeated Stout State, La Crosse, and the host, Stevens Point, to earn that distinction.

The first home meet showed that the holiday break did not effect the success of the squad as the matmen powered their way to dual meet wins over all three opponents: Michigan Tech, Western Illinois and Wartburg. However, two varsity wrestlers, Tom Precious and Larry Wedemeier, were lost for the season due to scholastic ineligibility.

Winona did battle with the Huskies of Michigan Tech in the first round last Saturday and triumphed by a wide margin of 37-3. All Warrior wrestlers were victorious except Dennis Scarbeck in the 177 pound division.

Darrell Andrist at 123 pounds, Leo Simon at 145, Jim Taniehill at 160, Ray Wicks at 167, and Heavy weight, John Zwolinski each pinned their respective Michigan Tech opponents. Decisions were won by Gene Tointon at 115, Roger Jehlicka at 130, Perry King at 137, and Merle Sovereign at 152 while Steve Drange at 190 pounds was also victorious as a result of a forfeit at that weight by the Huskies.

Coach Gunner's grapplers then faced Wartburg of Waverly, Iowa, and met little resistance in winning 32-7.

Tanniehill and Zwolinski won by pins again, and only Bill Roth, substituting for Scarbeck and wrestling at a weight disadvantage, lost to his opponent. Aside from a pair of draws involving Wicks and Drange, all other Warriors copped a victory.

But Winona State was not allowed to use their freshmen wrestlers against Western Illinois University in the third and final round because WIU is a member of the NCAA, and freshmen are not given the opportunity to compete. The Warriors still managed to win by a substantial margin of 22-9.

Once again John "Malty" Zwolinski pinned his opponent, giving him six pins in six matches this year. His three pins combined Saturday took just over three minutes. Other Warrior wrestlers who remained undefeated at the end of the day include King, Simon, Wicks, Tanniehill, and Sovereign. Steve Baird also decisioned his WIU representative despite giving up a fifteen pound edge to his opponent.

The immediate schedule should prove to be rugged for Winona State with a trip to River Falls this past Wednesday, a visit to Mankato to compete against the defending NCAA small college champion Indians, who also are seeking revenge for a loss to the Warriors last winter. On Saturday, Winona State will travel to Milwaukee for a dual with Marquette University.

Swimmers top Luther

The Winona State swim team has compiled a well-earned 3-2 record since quarter break.

Before the holiday break, Coach John Martin's poolmen were defeated by Macalester College in a dual meet held in St. Paul, and they placed second in a triangular at La Crosse losing to the University of Nebraska but outscoring the Indians. The Warriors also were victorious over Mankato State, regarded as one threat to the conference title this year. The meet took place in Memorial pool on Dec. 10.

This past weekend the swimmers traveled to Decorah, Iowa for a dual meet with Luther College. Winona State emerged with an easy 81-14 triumph over the inexperienced Luther team.

Despite the fact that Coach Martin had several of his varsity swimmers competing on an exhibition basis, Warrior swimmers still captured first places in all 11 events. However, no records were broken.

John W. Keenan swam the 50 yard freestyle race in 25.2 seconds for first-place honors. George Nash was victorious in the individual medley with a highly-respectable team of 2 minutes and 37 seconds, and Ron Amdahl sped to a 2:08 clocking in the 200 yard freestyle for another first.

Tom Stover won the diving event after a see-saw battle with teammate Randy Sinke, and Winona State took the backstroke as Jerry Grade came up with a time of 2:23 for his finest performance.

Both Warrior relay teams were also victorious while Glen Donhart in the breaststroke, Pete Kopercinski in the butterfly, Bob Hatton in the 500 yard freestyle, and Graham Jacobsen in the 100 yard freestyle were all first-place finishers for Winona.

The next action for the Warriors will come this Saturday in Stevens Point against the Pointers in a dual, and next Monday when Winona State will host River Falls in their second home meet.
